TENNESSEE NEGRO LYNCHED

He Had Murdered a Farmer Who Caught Him Stealing.

Lewisburg, Tenn., Nov. 12.-John Davis, a egro, was hanged in the Courthouse yard to-day by a mob of 500 men for the murder of Robert Adair, a farmer living near this city.

Adair's body was found in a terribly mutilated condition in a field near his home here this morning. He had started out in pursuit of a thief who was stealing his corn, and when his body was discovered the stock and barrel of a small rifle and a knife covered with blood were found near him. The knife was identified as the property of John Davis, a negro.

The Sheriff organized a posse and went to the house of Davis and found a pile of bloody clothes, but the murderer had fied. He was caught half a mile from town, but not until he had been twice wounded. He was brought back and the Sheriff and the Reversend John Royal Harris made an appeal to the people to allow the law to take its course. The crowd, however, was deaf to all entreaties and hanged the negro in the Courthouse yard.
